Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event of a claim alleging copyright or other intellectual property infringement, Your foregoing indemnity obligation shall be immediate. 	(c) Pending the determination of any claim relating to Your foregoing indemnity obligation, unless You post a bond in a form and amount acceptable to Company in Company's reasonable discretion, Company shall have the right to withhold (and/or cause the Distributor to withhold) from any sums due You hereunder an amount equal to Your potential liability pursuant to this paragraph. If as of the date twelve (12) months following the date such sums were initially withheld, no litigation on the claim has commenced or is imminent and no settlement discussions are then taking place, then the sums so withheld shall be credited to your account (subject to Company's right to once again withhold if litigation subsequently is instigated or becomes likely). (b) No party will be deemed to be in breach of any of such party's obligations hereunder unless and until the other party will have given written notice specifically setting forth the nature of such breach and the breaching party will have failed to cure such breach within thirty (30) days after the effective date of such notice (reduced to fifteen [15] days for failure to timely account and/or pay amounts due hereunder). Producer Royalty Provisions

Producer's Royalty shall be paid retroactively from "record one" after Distributor recoups the Recording Costs (excluding any in-pocket advances paid to Artist) incurred in connection with the Album in which the Release is initially embodied and the master recordings embodied thereupon from the "net artist royalties" (i.e. the gross "all-in" royalties payable to Artist in connection with all exploitations of the Release and the master recordings embodied thereupon minus the royalty payable to Producer and all third-party producers, mixers, and other third party royalty participants (other than Artist) rendering services with respect to the Release and further subject to Distributor's recoupment of the Advance from Producer's Royalty.

Producer's Royalty for records that embody the Master together with master recordings that are not the Master shall be prorated by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of royalty-bearing Master(s) embodied thereon (i.e., one (1)) and the denominator of which is the number of royalty-bearing (or fee-bearing) master recordings (including the Master) embodied thereon.

On exploitations of the Master for which a percentage of net receipts, including without limitation so-called "flat fee" income, or the like, is payable pursuant to the Distribution Agreement, Producer's Royalty will be equal to that portion of net receipts on such exploitations that is payable pursuant to the Distribution Agreement multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the Base Rate and the denominator of which is the un-escalated "all-in" base royalty rate pursuant to the Distribution Agreement (the "Fraction"). On exploitations of audio-visual recordings embodying the Master, Producer's Royalty will be equal to fifty percent (50%) of the otherwise applicable royalty. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, Producer's Royalty in connection with the Master embodied in "MTV-style" music videos, or the like, will be payable prospectively after the recoupable production costs of the applicable video have been recouped as set forth in the Distribution Agreement.

In the event Artist receives or is credited with any so-called "Direct Monies" directly from third-parties other than Distributor (e.g., monies from SoundExchange) solely and directly attributable to the Master, Company will cause Artist to pay, or shall instruct such third party to pay, Producer its pro-rata share of such Direct Monies determined by multiplying such Direct Monies, received by Artist, by the Fraction. Company shall cause Artist to execute and submit the irrevocable letter of direction in the form of Exhibit B attached hereto and incorporated herein by this reference as signed by Artist instructing SoundExchange to account directly to Producer its pro-rata share at the same time and subject to the same conditions pursuant to which SoundExchange accounts to Artist. In the event Company contracts with a featured artist for the Master, Company shall obtain and submit a letter of direction in the form of Exhibit B in favor of the Producer and Company shall use reasonable commercial efforts to cause any such featured artist to execute such letter of direction. In the event that SoundExchange does not directly account to Producer for Producer's share of Direct Monies, Company shall cause Artist to account for and pay Producer Producer's share of SoundExchange Direct Monies pursuant to the terms of the "Accounting" paragraphs below, without regard to the recoupment status of Producer's royalty account hereunder.

Producer's Royalty shall not be reduced except as specifically provided in the Producer Agreement to which this Schedule is attached).

Accounting:

Company shall use reasonable efforts to cause Distributor to pay to Producer royalties, fees and/or advances directly via an irrevocable letter of direction in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (or such form as required by Distributor). In the event that Distributor refuses or fails to pay royalties, fees, or advances directly to Producer, and following Producer's written notice to Company of such failure, Company shall send Producer statements regarding royalties, fees or advances payable to Lender within forty-five (45) days of Company's receipt thereof together with any payments due to Producer thereunder. Company shall have the right to deduct from any amounts payable to Producer hereunder solely such portion thereof as may be required to be deducted under the provisions of any applicable statute, regulation, treaty or other law, or under any applicable union or guild agreement, and Producer shall promptly execute and deliver to Company such forms and other documents as may be reasonably required by Company in connection therewith.

Producer understands and agrees that Company will be relying on statements provided to Company by Distributor. Accordingly, Producer shall be deemed to have consented to all royalty statements and all other accountings rendered by Company hereunder and each such royalty statement or other accounting shall be conclusive, final, and binding, shall constitute an account stated, and shall not be subject to any objection for any reason whatsoever unless specific objection in writing, stating the basis thereof, is given by Producer to Company by the date that is three (3) months prior to the date Company has to inspect the books of Distributor (the "Audit Period"). At any time within the Audit Period, Producer may, on reasonable notice to Company, appoint a certified public accountant to audit, at Producer's own expense, our books and records solely as they relate to the sale and other exploitation of the Master (and related expenditures) solely for the a copy of the audit report within thirty (30) days after the completion of the applicable audit. No accounting statement shall be subject to audit more than once and no more than one (1) audit shall be conducted in any calendar year. No action, suit, or proceeding of any nature in respect of any royalty statement or other accounting rendered hereunder may be maintained against Company unless such action, suit, or proceeding is commenced against Company in a court of competent jurisdiction by the date that is three (3) months prior to the date Company has to commence action against Distributor. Producer shall not have the right to audit the books and records of Distributor. Company shall credit Producer's account with Lender's pro rata share of any monies recovered by Company with respect to the Master pursuant to any audit Company may elect to conduct of Distributor or claim against Distributor in connection with the Master, or any recoveries or settlements with Distributor or any third party, after deduction "off-the-top" of any actual, out-of-pocket, third party, reasonable costs actually incurred directly as a result of such audit, claim or settlement (solely to the extent such costs have not been reimbursed by Distributor or such other third party).. At Producer written request Company shall promptly provide Producer with relevant portions of the audit report submitted to Distributor.

(i) The royalties payable pursuant to this agreement include all royalties (other than music publishing royalties) payable to you, Artist and any other Persons with respect to the Record concerned.

0) If the performances embodied on any Recording hereunder enter the public domain in any country of the Territory so that such Recording may be reproduced and/or exploited in such country without license from and payment to Company, then, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, no monies shall be payable hereunder to you and/or Artist with respect to such Recording sold in such country on and after the date such Recording enters the public domain.

If any Artwork is commercially exploited separately in connection with the sale or license of a Record, Company shall credit your royalty account hereunder with a percentage of Net Receipts derived from the sale or license of such Artwork that is equal to the Basic U.S. Rate applicable to such Record. If any Artwork is commercially exploited separately and not in connection with the sale or license of a Record (e.g., as so-called wallpaper" or other visual images downloadable via the Internet or wireless devices), Company shall credit your royalty account hereunder with fifty percent (50%) of Net Receipts derived from the exploitation of such Artwork.

With respect to Voice Ringers, the royalty rate shall be one hundred percent (100%) of the royalty rate otherwise applicable to the most-recently released Committed Album or, if no Committed Album has been released, the royalty rate otherwise applicable to the First Album.

Within ninety (90) days after June 30 and December 31 of each year during which applicable Records are sold, Company shall render a statement of accrued royalties earned under this agreement during the preceding calendar semi-annual period. Concurrently with the rendition of each statement, Company shall pay you all royalties shown to be due by such statement, after deducting all Advances made prior to the rendition of the statement. No statements need be rendered by Company for any such calendar semi-annual period after the expiration of the Term for which there are no sales of Records derived from Recordings hereunder. Company shall be deemed conclusively to have rendered each statement on the date prescribed in this paragraph 10(a)(i) unless you notify Company otherwise with respect to any particular statement within sixty (60) days after the date that Company is required to render that statement pursuant to the first sentence of this paragraph 10(a)(i).

(b) You shall have the right at your sole cost and expense to appoint a certified public accountant to examine Books and Records as same pertain to sales of Records subject hereto; provided that, any such examination shall be for a reasonable duration, shall take place at Company's offices during normal business hours on reasonable prior notice and shall not occur more than once in any calendar year. You may examine Books and Records with respect to a particular statement only once. If Company agrees that there has been an undercrediting of royalties to you exceeding ten percent (10%) of the total royalties reported as credited by Company to your account hereunder for the period covered by such examination or if an undercrediting of royalties exceeding such amount is established by a court of competent jurisdiction, Company shall reimburse you in the amount of all reasonable fees paid by you to the auditors concerned in connection with such audit, up to a maximum amount of Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) per audit. Company shall pay interest to you on the payable portion (i.e., the portion in excess of any then-unrecouped Advances) of any agreed upon or so-established undercrediting of royalties hereunder at the prime rate as quoted in the "Money Rate" section of The Wall Street Journal or any other similarly reputable published source, calculated on the basis of a 365-day year.

Company shall compute your royalties in the same national currency in which Company's licensee pays Company for that sale, and Company shall credit those royalties to your account at the same rate of exchange at which the licensee pays Company (or credits Company in recoupment of an advance made to purpose of accounting to you, Company shall treat any sale outside of the United States as a sale made during the same royalty accounting period in which Company receives accounting and payment (or credit to Company in recoupment of an advance made to Company by such licensee, as reflected in a royalty accounting statement received by Company) for that sale from the applicable licensee. If Company cannot collect payment in the United States in U.S. Dollars, Company shall not be required to account to you for that sale, except that Company shall, at your request and at your expense, deduct from the monies so blocked, and deposit in a foreign depository, the equivalent in local currency of the royalties which would be payable to you on the foreign sales concerned, to the extent such monies are available for that purpose, and only to the extent to which your royalty account is then in a fully recouped position. All such deposits shall constitute royalty payments to you for accounting purposes.

To the extent possible, Company shall allow you to select the foreign depository referred to in this paragraph 10(a){iii).

Company shall credit to your royalty account royalties as described below. Royalties shall be computed by applying the applicable royalty rate specified herein to the applicable Royalty Base Price in respect of Net Sales of the Record concerned:

Canada	--
United Kingdom	--
Japan, Australia, New Zealand & the European Major Territories other than the United Kingdom	--
Rest of the World	--

(i) The royalty rate for Net Sales of the following categories of sales of Records by Company or its Principal Licensees shall be computed at the applicable percentage of the Basic U.S. Rate or Foreign Rate that would otherwise apply to such Net Sales of the Record concerned:

(i) The royalty rate on Net Sales of Phono Records which are derived from Recordings hereunder, which Phono Records are licensed by Company or a Principal Licensee for sale through any Club Operation, shall be fifty percent (50%) of Net Receipts. No royalties shall be payable with respect to Phono Records received by members of any Club Operation in an introductory offer in connection with joining it or purchasing a required number of Phono Records including Phono Records distributed as "bonus" or "free" Phono Records, or Phono Records for which the Club Operation is not paid, provided that your royalty account shall be credited with a royalty on at least fifty percent (50%) of all Records distributed through any Club Operation. Company shall make such computation on a cumulative basis,

With respect to Electronic Transmissions, the royalty rate shall be one hundred percent (100%) of the Basic U.S. Rate or Foreign Rate otherwise applicable to the Album on which the applicable Recording was originally embodied (or, if such Recording has not been embodied on an Album prior to its release via Electronic Transmission, the Basic U.S. Rate or Foreign Rate otherwise applicable to the most-recently released Committed Album or, if no Committed Album has been released, the Basic U.S. Rate or Foreign Rate otherwise applicable to the First Album).

The royalty rate on any Record embodying Recordings hereunder coupled with other Recordings shall be computed by multiplying the otherwise applicable royalty rate by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of Recordings hereunder embodied on such Record and the denominator of which is the total number of Recordings embodied on such Record; however, the royalty rate on a Video which is coupled with Recordings by other artists on Audiovisual Records shall in no event exceed the royalty rate that would apply if such royalty were computed by apportionment based on the actual playing time of each Recording embodied in the Audiovisual Record concerned.

As to any Recording hereunder embodying the performances of Artist together with the performances of any other artist(s), the royalty rate otherwise payable hereunder with respect to sales of any Record derived from such Recording shall be computed by multiplying such royalty rate by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be one (1) and the denominator of which shall be the total number of artists whose performances are embodied on such Recording.

(i) The royalties payable pursuant to this agreement include all royalties (other than music publishing royalties) payable to you, Artist and any other Persons with respect to the Record concerned.

0) If the performances embodied on any Recording hereunder enter the public domain in any country of the Territory so that such Recording may be reproduced and/or exploited in such country without license from and payment to Company, then, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, no monies shall be payable hereunder to you and/or Artist with respect to such Recording sold in such country on and after the date such Recording enters the public domain.

Concurrently with the rendition of each statement, Company shall pay you all royalties shown to be due by such statement, after deducting all Advances made prior to the rendition of the statement. No statements need be rendered by Company for any such calendar semi-annual period after the expiration of the Term for which there are no sales of Records derived from Recordings hereunder. All statements and payments shall be made to the order of _____ and shall be sent to _____ at the following address: _____.

_____. Company shall be entitled to maintain a single account with respect to all Recordings subject to this agreement or any other agreement.

Company shall be deemed conclusively to have rendered each statement on the date prescribed in this paragraph 10(a)(i) unless you notify Company otherwise with respect to any particular statement within sixty (60) days after the date that Company is required to render that statement pursuant to the first sentence of this paragraph 10(a)(i).

(b) You shall have the right at your sole cost and expense to appoint a certified public accountant to examine Books and Records as same pertain to sales of Records subject hereto; provided that, any such examination shall be for a reasonable duration, shall take place at Company's offices during normal business hours on reasonable prior notice and shall not occur more than once in any calendar year. You may examine Books and Records with respect to a particular statement only once. If Company agrees that there has been an undercrediting of royalties to you exceeding ten percent (10%) of the total royalties reported as credited by Company to your account hereunder for the period covered by such examination or if an undercrediting of royalties exceeding such amount is established by a court of competent jurisdiction, Company shall reimburse you in the amount of all reasonable fees paid by you to the auditors concerned in connection with such audit, up to a maximum amount of Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) per audit. Company shall pay interest to you on the payable portion (i.e., the portion in excess of any then-unrecouped Advances) of any agreed upon or so-established undercrediting of royalties hereunder at the prime rate as quoted in the "Money Rate" section of The Wall Street Journal or any other similarly reputable published source, calculated on the basis of a 365-day year.

Company shall compute your royalties in the same national currency in which Company's licensee pays Company for that sale, and Company shall credit those royalties to your account at the same rate of exchange at which the licensee pays Company (or credits Company in recoupment of an advance made to Company by such licensee, as reflected in a royalty accounting statement received by Company). For purposes of accounting to you, Company shall treat any sale outside of the United States as a sale made during the same royalty accounting period in which Company receives accounting and payment (or credit to Company in recoupment of an advance made to Company by such licensee, as reflected in a royalty accounting statement received by Company) for that sale from the applicable licensee. If Company cannot collect payment in the United States in U.S. Dollars, Company shall not be required to account to you for that sale, except that Company shall, at your request and at your expense, deduct from the monies so blocked, and deposit in a foreign depository, the equivalent in local currency of the royalties which would be payable to you on the foreign sales concerned, to the extent such monies are available for that purpose, and only to the extent to which your royalty account is then in a fully recouped position. All such deposits shall constitute royalty payments to you for accounting purposes. To the extent possible, Company shall allow you to select the foreign depository referred to in this paragraph 10(a){iii}.

12. LICENSES FOR MUSICAL COMPOSITIONS

(a) For the purposes of this agreement, the following definitions shall apply: (i) "Controlled Compositions" - any Composition or material recorded pursuant to this agreement which, in whole or in part, is written or composed, and/or owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by you and/or any individual member of Artist and/or any producer of a Master and/or anyone associated or affiliated with you, Artist or any such producer; (ii) "Effective Date" - the earlier of: (A) the date on which you Deliver the first Master which embodies the Controlled Composition concerned; or (8) the date on which you are required to Deliver such Master; (iii) "U.S. 100% Rate" - the United States minimum per Composition compulsory license rate applicable to the use of Compositions on phonorecords under the United States Copyright Law (without regard to playing time) in effect as of the Effective Date, or, if there is no statutory rate in the United States as of the Effective Date, the per Composition rate (without regard to playing time) generally utilized by major record companies in the United States as of the Effective Date; and (iv) "Canadian 100% Rate" - the Canadian statutory per Composition rate (without regard to playing time) in effect as of the Effective Date, or, if there is no statutory rate in Canada as of the Effective Date, the per Composition rate (without regard to playing time) generally utilized by major record companies in Canada as of the Effective Date].

(b) Controlled Compositions shall be and are hereby irrevocably licensed to Company and its licensees: (i) for the United States, at a royalty per Controlled Composition equal to the U.S. 100% Rate; and (ii) for Canada, at a royalty per Controlled Composition equal to the Canadian 100% Rate.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, regardless of the total number of Compositions embodied on the Record concerned, the maximum aggregate mechanical royalty rate which Company shall be required to pay in respect of: (i) any Single hereunder shall not exceed two (2) times the U.S. 100% Rate or the Canadian 100% Rate, as the case may be; (ii) any Maxi-Single hereunder shall not exceed three (3) times the U.S. 100% Rate or the Canadian 100% Rate, as the case may be; (iii) any EP hereunder shall not exceed five (5) times the U.S. 100% Rate or the Canadian 100% Rate, as the case may be; (iv) any Album (and any Value-Added Record) hereunder shall not exceed twelve (12) times the U.S. 100% Rate or the Canadian 100% Rate, as the case may be; and (v) any Multiple Record Set hereunder (other than any Value-Added Record) shall not exceed the otherwise applicable maximum aggregate mechanical royalty rate set forth in this paragraph 12(c) multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the PPD for such Multiple Record Set and the denominator of which shall be the PPD applicable to the majority (or plurality) of Company's or its Principal Licensee's top line single Albums in the same format.

(d) In respect of all Controlled Compositions, Company and its licensees are hereby granted the irrevocable perpetual right throughout the Territory, at no cost, to reprint the lyrics on and/or in connection with the jackets, sleeves and other packaging of Records derived from Recordings hereunder, and to transmit, broadcast, or otherwise reproduce such lyrics on, or cause the transmission, broadcast or other reproduction of lyrics by means of Records containing audiovisual material, and on websites, in connection with the exploitation and promotion of Recordings hereunder. Company shall provide appropriate copyright notices and writer and publisher credits with respect to such reprinted lyrics; provided that, Company's inadvertent failure to do so in any instance shall not constitute a breach of this agreement. You also grant to Company and Company's licensees an irrevocable license under copyright to reproduce each Controlled Composition in Videos and in advertisements for Recordings hereunder (including so-called EPKs) or Artist's recording services in any and all media (including television, radio and the Internet), to reproduce, distribute and perform those Videos and advertisements in any manner (including publicly and for profit, and including use of such Videos and advertisements in Records containing audiovisual material and in webcasts), to manufacture and distribute Audiovisual Records and other copies of those Videos, and to exploit such Videos and advertisements otherwise, by any method and in any form known now or in the future, in perpetuity and throughout the Territory, and to authorize others to do so. Company shall pay a music publishing royalty for each such Audiovisual Record sold, paid for and not returned at a rate equal to eight ($0.08) cents per Controlled Composition; provided that, in no event shall the aggregate mechanical royalties payable by Company in respect of all Compositions contained in any particular Audiovisual Record exceed eight (8%) percent of the Royalty Base Price for such Audiovisual Record. Company and Company's licensees shall not be required to make any additional payment in connection with any such uses. If any exhibition of a Video and/or advertisement is also authorized under another license (such as a public performance license granted by ASCAP or BMI), that exhibition shall be deemed authorized by that license instead of this agreement. In all events, Company and Company's licensees shall have no liability by reason of any such exhibition. You also grant to Company and Company's licensees at no cost an irrevocable license under copyright to reproduce, distribute and perform each Controlled Composition or any portion thereof for promotional purposes on websites maintained by Company or its licensees or affiliates throughout the Territory.

(e) If the aggregate mechanical royalty rate for any Record exceeds the applicable maximum aggregate mechanical royalty rate provided in paragraph 12(c), the aggregate mechanical royalty rate for Controlled Compositions contained thereon shall be reduced by the amount of that excess. Additionally, Company (and/or Company's Principal Licensee in Canada) shall have the right to deduct the amount of that excess from all monies payable under this agreement or any other agreement. Mechanical royalties shall be paid on 100% of Publishing Net Sales. No mechanical royalties shall be payable with respect to non-musical material, Compositions that are two (2) minutes or less in duration, Compositions embodied in "hidden" Recordings (i.e., Recordings which are not listed in the primary track listing on the liner notes for the Record concerned), or "intros," "interludes," "extraludes" or similar Compositions. Company may maintain reserves with respect to the payment of mechanical royalties. If Company (or its applicable Principal Licensee) makes an overpayment of mechanical royalties in respect of Compositions recorded under this agreement, you shall reimburse Company for same, failing which Company may recoup any such overpayment from all monies becoming payable under this agreement or any other agreement. Mechanical royalty payments on Records subsequently returned are considered overpayments. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, mechanical royalties payable in respect of Controlled Compositions for Publishing Net Sales other than from USNRC Net Sales shall be seventy-five percent (75%) of the otherwise applicable U.S. 100% Rate or Canadian 100% Rate, as the case may be. Mechanical royalties for Controlled Compositions which are arranged versions of any Compositions in the public domain shall be paid in the same proportion as the appropriate performing rights society grants performing credits to the publisher of such Controlled Composition, provided you have furnished Company with a copy of the letter from such performing rights society setting forth the percentage of the otherwise applicable credit which the publisher shall receive. Any assignment of the ownership or administration of copyright in any Controlled Composition shall be made subject to the provisions hereof and any inconsistencies between the terms of this agreement and mechanical licenses issued to and accepted by Company shall be determined by the terms of this agreement. If any Record contains Compositions which are not Controlled Compositions, you shall obtain for Company's benefit mechanical licenses covering such Compositions on the same terms and conditions applicable to Controlled Compositions pursuant to this paragraph 12.

(f) You hereby agree that all Compositions shall be available for licensing by Company and Company's licensees for reproduction and distribution in each country of the Territory outside of the United States and Canada through the author's society or other licensing and collecting body generally responsible for such activities in the country concerned. You shall cause the issuance of effective licenses, under copyright and otherwise, to reproduce each Composition on Records and distribute those Records outside the United States and Canada, on terms not less favorable to Company or Company's licensees than the terms prevailing on a general basis in the country concerned with respect to the use of Compositions on comparable Records.

(g) Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing provisions of this paragraph 12 to the contrary, if a particular Controlled Composition recorded hereunder is embodied more than once on a particular Record, Company shall pay mechanical royalties in connection therewith at the applicable rate for such Controlled Composition as if the Controlled Composition concerned were embodied thereon only once. For purposes of this paragraph 12, a Composition and all adaptations thereof (e.g., remixes, etc.), if any, shall be deemed to be one (1) Composition.

(h) If you or Artist and/or anyone associated or affiliated with you or Artist are party to an exclusive music publishing agreement for a territory which includes the United States and/or Canada (a "Controlled Publishing Agreement") with any music publishing company owned and controlled by Warner Music Group (a "Controlled Publisher"). Company shall pay mechanical royalties pursuant to this paragraph 12 with respect to Publishing Net Sales of Records hereunder at the U.S. 100% Rate (if the territory includes the United States) or Canadian 100% Rate (if the territory includes Canada), as applicable, in lieu of the U.S. Rate and Canadian Rate, as applicable, but otherwise pursuant to all other terms of this paragraph 12, with respect to each Controlled Composition which is subject to the Controlled Publisher's exclusive administration rights under the Controlled Publishing Agreement, for so long as and to the extent that such Controlled Composition is subject to such exclusive administration rights in the United States and/or Canada, as applicable.

Each Master shall be delivered to Company at Warner Bros. Records Inc., 3300 Warner Boulevard, Burbank, California 91505, ATTN: A&R Administration or such other place as Company may notify you. RE: Letter of Direction Anthony Catchings Currie p/k/a "NNTYSIX"

Gentlepersons:

Proper Business Ent., LLC ("Company") has engaged Anthony Catchings Currie p/k/a "NNTYSIX" ("Producer"), pursuant to the attached producer agreement dated as of April 14th, 2021 ("Producer Agreement") to render services as a producer with respect to the master recording currently entitled "For The Culture" (the "Master") embodying the performances of Isaiah Dukes p/k/a "Lil Zay Osama" ("Artist") to be delivered by Company pursuant to the agreement between you and Artist dated as of January 22nd, 2019, as amended (the "Warner Bros. Agreement").

Although the Producer Agreement requires Company to pay for the services of Producer, Company hereby requests and authorizes you to make payments to Producer for Producer's services on Company's behalf as set forth below. All capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein will have the meaning ascribed to them in the Warner Bros. Agreement.

1. A non-returnable payment of Five Hundred ($500) Dollars ("Fee"). The Fee will be deemed an advance ("Advance") fully recoupable from all monies becoming payable to Producer under paragraph 2 below or otherwise. The Fee will be paid upon the later of: (a) the delivery and acceptance by you of the commercially and technically satisfactory Master; or (b) the full execution of the Producer Agreement. To the extent the Advance is not so recouped, such Advance may be recouped by you pursuant to the terms of the Warner Bros. Agreement.
2. A royalty ("Producer Royalty") on exploitations of the Master at the following rates, in accordance with the following terms:

(a) On net sales of full-priced, top-line LPs embodying the Master which are sold through normal retail distribution channels in the United States in respect of which royalties are payable pursuant to the Warner Bros. Agreement ("Base Rate Records") and digital distribution of the Masters, Producer shall be paid a royalty at the rate of three (3%) percent of the applicable base rate (without regards to any escalations thereunder) (hereinafter the "Base Rate"), prorated subject to subparagraph 2(c) below. The Base Rate shall be calculated, adjusted and paid as set forth in the Warner Bros. Agreement. With respect to all other exploitations of the Master for which a royalty is payable to Artist pursuant to the Warner Bros. Agreement, the Producer Royalty shall be calculated, determined, adjusted and paid on the same basis as Artist's royalty is calculated, determined, adjusted and paid on the same basis as the Artist's royalties are calculated, determined, adjusted and paid pursuant to the Warner Bros. Agreement.

(b) On exploitations of the Master for which the royalty described in the Warner Bros. Agreement as a percentage of Warner Bros Records Inc.'s Net Receipts (including, without limitation, any so called flat fee income), Producer shall be paid a royalty equal to the royalty on such exploitations described in the Warner Bros. Agreement multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the Base Rate and the denominator of which is the basic unescalated rate applicable to all Records in the U.S. pursuant to the Warner Bros. Agreement (the "Fraction"). With respect to the commercial exploitation of audiovisual recordings ("Videos") embodying the Master, the Producer Royalty shall be an amount equal to fifty percent (50%) of the amount otherwise payable to Producer hereunder, pro-rated as set in subparagraph 2(c) below, and paid prospectively following recoupment of all recoupable costs in connection with such Video, subject to the recoupment of the Advance.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, on exploitations of the Master together with other master recordings, the royalty otherwise payable to Producer hereunder with respect to such exploitations shall be prorated by multiplying such royalty by a fraction, the numerator of which is one (1) and the denominator of which is the total number of royalty-bearing master recordings (including the Master) embodied thereon.

3. The Producer Royalty will not be payable until you have recouped all Recording Costs attributable to Producer's producing of the Master as well as all Recording Costs with respect to the Album upon which the Master is initially embodied under the Warner Bros. Agreement. Such recoupment will be computed at the net royalty rate as reduced to reflect the deduction of the royalty payable to Artist, Producer as well as any other producer, mixer or remixer of the Master hereunder from the U.S. Basic Rate. After such recoupment, the Producer Royalty will be computed retroactively and paid on the Master from the first Master sold or otherwise exploited, subject only to the recoupment of the Advance from the Producer Royalty earned hereunder, and without regard for the overall recoupment status of Artist's account with Warner Bros. Records Inc.

4. Your compliance with this authorization will constitute an accommodation to Company/Artist alone; Producer is not beneficiary of it. All payments under this authorization will constitute payment to Company/Artist and you will have no liability by reason of any erroneous payment or failure to comply with this authorization. Company/Artist will indemnify and hold you harmless against any claims asserted against you and any damages, losses or expenses you incur by reason of any such payment or otherwise in connection herewith.

5. All monies becoming payable under this authorization will be remitted to Producer at the following address or otherwise as it directs you in writing and will be accompanied by statements with respect to such payments:

1. Performer represents and warrants that Performer is the featured recording artist who performed on the sound recording(s) identified on the "LOD Repertoire Chart" attached hereto as Schedule 1 (the "Recordings").
2. Performer represents and warrants that Payee is an individual credited or recognized publicly for the commercially released sound recording identified on the LOD Repertoire Chart (i.e., a producer, mixer, or engineer).
3. Performer requests and authorizes SoundExchange to pay to and in the name of Payee an amount equal to Percentage of the royalties otherwise payable by SoundExchange to Performer in respect of the Recordings, thereby reducing the payments from SoundExchange to Performer. If a previous "Royalty Distribution Information for Featured Artist" or other letter of direction has been provided to SoundExchange that conflicts with this Letter of Direction, then any and all previous letters of direction or similar documents conflicting herewith are hereby revoked.
4. All monies becoming payable under this Letter of Direction shall be remitted to Payee at the address identified above or as Payee otherwise directs SoundExchange in writing. In the event of such a revocation, SoundExchange may, but need not, mail notice of the revocation to the last known address of Payee. The foregoing is without prejudice to any other contractual arrangements between Performer and Payee requiring payment of the Percentage by Performer. SoundExchange has no responsibility for Performer's performance or nonperformance of any such obligation.
6. SoundExchange may discontinue making payments under this Letter of Direction at any time, including if checks mailed to Payee's last known address are returned, Performer ceases to be a registrant of SoundExchange, or SoundExchange modifies its policies concerning letters of direction. If it does so, then SoundExchange may, but need not, mail notice thereof to the last known address of Performer and Payee, and monies that otherwise would have been payable under this Letter of Direction will be paid to Performer.
7. Performer acknowledges that SoundExchange is providing payments to Payee solely as an accommodation to Performer but that all royalties distributed by SoundExchange to Payee are taxable to Payee. Payee shall be solely responsible for providing SoundExchange with tax paperwork required by any governmental agency, including the Internal Revenue Service, to avoid tax withholding.

8. SoundExchange may rely conclusively, and shall have no liability when acting, upon any written notice, instruction, other document or signature that is reasonably believed by SoundExchange to be genuine and to be authorized by Performer. SoundExchange shall not be responsible for failure to act as a result of causes beyond the reasonable control of SoundExchange. SoundExchange shall not be liable to Performer, Payee or to any third party for, and Performer agrees to defend (with counsel satisfactory to SoundExchange), indemnify and hold harmless SoundExchange from, any damages or loss (including reasonable attorney's fees) in any way related to this Letter of Direction, unless such loss is caused by SoundExchange's gross negligence or willful misconduct. The provisions of this Paragraph 8 shall survive the revocation or other termination of this Letter of Direction.

9. In order to maintain flexibility in administering this Letter of Direction, SoundExchange may modify these Terms and Conditions from time to time, in its sole discretion. Such changes shall be effective immediately and Performer shall be deemed to have notice of such changes when they are made available on the SoundExchange website. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Performer does not wish to accept any changes, Performer must provide SoundExchange written notice within thirty (30) days of notice of any changes to this Letter of Direction.

10. This Letter of Direction shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the substantive laws of the District of Columbia. Any dispute relating to or arising from this Letter of Direction shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of courts sitting in the District of Columbia.
